WHAT IS A GOOD CAUSE WAIVER?

Section 660.317, RSMo, requires regulated health care employers, such as a long-term care facility, hospital, home health agency, in-home service provider and consumer directed services programs under contract with the Department of Health and Senior Services, hospice, or adult day care provider to obtain background screenings prior to hiring an employee. For in-home services providers, consumer directed services providers and home health agencies, this includes checking the Family Care Safety Registry (Sections 210.900 – 210.936, RSMo.) This statute states that an individual with a certain type of finding identified in their background screening cannot be hired by these employers. However, in certain circumstances, the individual has the opportunity to apply for a good cause waiver that, if granted, would allow them to be employed.

WHAT BACKGROUND SCREENING FINDINGS ARE NOT ELIGIBLE TO BE WAIVED?

Individuals who have been placed on the Employee Disqualification List (EDL) maintained by the Department of Health and Senior Services are not eligible for a Good Cause Waiver.

WHAT INFORMATION IS REQUIRED TO BE SUBMITTED WHEN APPLYING FOR A GOOD CAUSE WAIVER?

A completed Application for Good Cause Waiver form AND:

- A complete Explanation of Background Screening Finding form for EACH arrest/investigation that resulted in the disqualifying offense or incident. Include what happened, how it happened, why it happened, when and where it happen, any person present at the time, and the circumstances from your point of view. Include why you feel your Good Cause Waiver should be approved.
- One sponsorship letter from a current or potential employer, training agency or school. If you are not able to obtain a sponsor, submit as a substitute 3 character references from persons knowledgeable of your character and employment history. The reference letters cannot be from someone related to or residing with you. Letters should state how long the person has known you and why they feel you should be recommended for a Good Cause Waiver
- Attach you employment history since the age of 18, including time period worked for each employer.

Include (if applicable):

- If the disqualifying finding is substantiated child abuse/neglect finding and/or foster parent denial/revocation/suspension finding, attach the investigation report from the Department of Social Services (DSS). This report is approximately 10 pages long and is available to you upon telephone or written request from you local DSS office.
- If you have ever been refused a license, certificate, or registration by any public or governmental licensing board, agency or regulatory authority, please explain the incident that led to the disciplinary action.
- If you have any pending felony or misdemeanor charges, include a statement explaining the circumstances and copies of the charging documents for all pending criminal charges.
- Explain any pending charges of child abuse, neglect or endangerment.
- Explain any pending charges that might result in the denial, revocation, or involuntary suspension of a foster parent license.
- Explain any pending charges that might lead to your inclusion on the Department of Mental Health Employee Disqualification list.

HOW WILL I BE NOTIFIED REGARDING THE OUTCOME OF MY GOOD CAUSE WAIVER?

Complete applications for Good Cause Waiver will be reviewed by a panel of health professionals. Applicants will be notified by mail regarding the decision. You may expect the process to take several months. To check on the status of your application, please go to: www.health.mo.gov/safety/goodcausewaiver .

IF A GOOD CAUSE WAIVER APPLICATION IS DENIED, CAN I REAPPLY?
